Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th August 1868.

No. 47. Read the following letter from J. W. JOHNSTON, Esq., Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury, Salem, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Salem, 13th July 1868, No. 117:—

1. I have the honor to request you will be so good as to order the cheque books noted in the margin to be supplied to me for the use of the Public Works Department of the Salem District.

2. The twenty-four books supplied in November 1866 have been almost expended, and there remain only four books on hand at present.

3. I request you will be so good as to inform me whether there is any objection to the numbers given to the cheques of the Department Public Works by this department, being renewed at the commencement of each official or Calendar year.

Referred to the Revenue Department with reference to paragraph 3, and to the Order in that Department, No. 404, dated 25th February 1863.

(Signed) CHARLES A. ORR, Colonel, R. E.,
22nd July 1868. Secretary to Government, P.W.D.

No. 48. ORDER THEREON, 4th August 1868, No. 2,086.

Miscellaneous.

With reference to paragraph 3 of the letter from the Deputy Collector of Salem, above recorded, the Government observe that Mr. Johnston has misapprehended that part of paragraph 7 of the Order of Government in this Department, dated 25th February 1863, No. 404, which requires the Collector or Deputy Collector "to number the cheques and enter the total number thereof on the fly-leaf of the cheque book under his signature." The consecutive numbering by the Collector's department ought to be limited to each book, in order to shew how many cheques it contains. The consecutive number shewing the number of cheques actually drawn during the official year should be given by the officers of the Public Works Department who issue the cheques. The numbering required by Rule 1, paragraph 4 of the Order above alluded to, should be done at Madras when the cheques are printed, and before they are forwarded to the Provinces.
