No. 185. Read also the following letter from the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 5th August 1868, No. 297:—

1. With reference to the Proceedings of Government, dated 24th ultimo, No. 2,031, I am directed by the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations to state that the G. O., 22nd January 1868, declaring certain Moon-shees, thrown out of Government employ, eligible for re-employment without passing the General Test, may be made applicable to D. Ramiah, Translator in the Office of the Superintendent of Revenue Survey.

2. In the case of Singam Iyengar, appointed Store-keeper in the same office, the Commissioner is of opinion that Government might confirm him in his present office for the special reasons urged by Colonel Priestley; but in the event of his seeking another appointment in the English branch of the Service, the Rule requiring candidates to pass in the English branch of the General Test should be enforced.

The Government exempt D. Ramiah from passing the General Test, and in consideration of the peculiar duties required to be performed by S.
