Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th August 1868.

No. 199. Read the following letter from the Director of Revenue Settlement, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 22nd July 1868, No. 860-28 :—

1. In forwarding, for the consideration and orders of Government, the accompanying original letter* from Mr. Wilson, Acting Sub-Collector in the Kistna District, and on special duty in this Department, together with the Deputy Accountant General's report† on the claim made therein, I have the honor to state that, in their Order of the 12th May 1866, No. 1,137, the Government were pleased to approve my proposal that Mr. Wilson should draw, as a remuneration for his duties in the Settlement Department, the difference between his ordinary pay and allowances as a Head Assistant and Acting Sub-Collector and those of a Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement, amounting to Rupees 198-5-4, as shewn in the margin.

Difference...	1,089	2	8

2. Under the new rules for acting allowances, Mr. Wilson's receipts as Head Assistant and Acting Sub-Collector are increased to Rupees 1,205-13-4 ; but as he already draws the full pay of a Deputy Director, his actual emoluments remain the same, though the difference between his

3. Mr. Wilson, therefore, requests permission, with reference to Section 82, Chapter II., Civil Auditor's Manual, to draw deputation allowance calculated on the aggregate salaries of a Sub-Collector and of a Deputy Director on the principle laid down in Clause 2, Section 1 of the new rules for acting allowances, which provides that the deputation allowance shall not be less than two-thirds of the difference between the pay of the substantive and acting appointments. Calculated in this way, his pay and allowances would amount to Rupees 1,921-6-3, of which Rupees 715-8-11 would form a charge against the Settlement Budget.

4. The Deputy Accountant General declares the claim inadmissible, and there can be no doubt that according to strict rule it is so. At the same time, it is probable that had the present rules for acting allowances been in force when the arrangement of the 12th May 1866 was made, a higher rate of remuneration for the Settlement additional duties than Rupees 81-10-8 would have been proposed, and as Rupees 198-5-4 was then fixed as a suitable amount, perhaps the Government will not object to sanction, as a special case, the continuance to Mr. Wilson of that sum monthly, in addition to his pay and allowances as Head Assistant and Acting Sub-Collector drawn under rule.

From W. WILSON, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector of Kistna on special duty, to the Director of Revenue Settlement, dated Camp at Bapatla, 7th July 1868, No. 143-74.

Under the new Furlough Rules, the pay of a Head Assistant acting as Sub-Collector, is Rupees 1,205-13-4, instead of Rupees 1,089-5-4 as heretofore. The allowance now drawn by me in the Settlement Department is the difference, Rupees 198-5-4, between the latter sum and the pay, Rupees 1,287-8-0, of a Deputy Director. This will now be reduced, if calculated in the same way, to Rupees 81-10-8 a-month. Under Section 82 of the Civil Auditor's Manual, Chapter II, "a Civil Servant officiating in more than one appointment is entitled to deputation allowance regulated by the aggregate amount of the salaries of the offices." Under the old Deputation Rules, my allowances, if calculated on this principle, would have been Rupees 1,292-8-0, or Rupees 5 a-month more than the pay of a Deputy Director—a sum so trifling that any question regarding it would have been vexatious. With the general increase in the amount of acting allowances, the matter assumes a different aspect, as my allowances in the Settlement Department are reduced to a very small sum, though there is no corresponding diminution in the work of which it is the remuneration. I have the honor, therefore, to request that I may be permitted to draw my allowances as Acting Sub-Collector and Officer in charge of Settlement, on the principles of Section 82 of the Civil Auditor's Manual. Thus calculated they will amount to Rupees 1,921-6-3, from which the pay, Rupees 1,205-13-4, of a Head Assistant acting as Sub-Collector being deducted, there remain Rupees 715-8-11 to be met from the Settlement Budget.

From the Deputy Accountant General, Madras, to the Director of Revenue Settlement, dated Fort St. George, 20th July 1868, No. 2,137.

Vide your Office Memorandum, No. 857-120, dated 18th instant.

he drew before from the revenue, and less from the Settlement Department.

2. The rule in the Civil Auditor's Manual to which he refers is based upon Section XXVI. of the Absentee Rules of 1855, and must be read in accordance therewith, thus preventing Mr. Wilson from drawing more than the pay of the higher paid of the two appointments he is acting in.

No. 200. ORDER THEREON, 14th August 1868, No. 2,159.

Land Revenue.

As Mr. Wilson's combined duties are of a more important and responsible character than those which ordinarily devolve on an Acting Sub-Collector, the Government are pleased, in compliance with the Director's recommendation, to sanction, as a special case, the continuance to that gentleman of the sum of Rupees 198-5-4 per mensem in addition to his pay and allowances as Head Assistant and Acting Sub-Collector under the new rules.

Under the new Surrough Rules the pay of a Head Assistant acting as Sub-Collector is Rs 1205-13-4 instead of Rs 1089-5-4 old deputation rules my allowances if calculated on this principle would have it would have been vexatious. With the general increase in the amount of acting allowances

 the matter assumes a different aspect as my allowances in the Settlement Department are reduced to a very small sum though there is no corresponding diminution in the work of which it is the remuneration. I
