398 and 809.	Gopalaswamitata Chari, younger brother of Viraragavatata Chari.	85 38	19th Aug. 1854.	Life-grant.	From Fusly 1263 to Fusly 1277.	922 8 0	This allowance was paid to the elder brother, Viraragavatatachi, till Fusly 1262, (A. D. 1852,) when having failed to appear for muster, the payment was withheld, and the Inams placed under attachment. The younger brother, Gopalaswamitata Chari, then moved the Civil Court in accordance with the terms of its Judgment to recover for him his share in the allowance. The matter was referred to the Board at the instance of the Court, and the Board ordered that, on the younger brother affording proof of his elder brother's existence, the sanction of Government should be solicited for the payment of the allowance; the Collector in his letter of the 17th July 1866, No. 270, reported to the Board that the wife of Viraragavatata Chari died in Strivilliputtur in April 1866, and that he remained thirteen days in the village to perform the funeral ceremonies, and was again seen in his house in the following month. The Government in their Proceedings, dated 30th July 1866, No. 1,877, approved the course recommended by the Inam Commissioner in the last paragraph of his letter, recorded in Government Order of 9th June 1866, No. 1,388, that half the Inam should be confirmed to the younger brother Gopalaswamitata Chari; the Collector, therefore, requests sanction for the disbursement of the arrears due to Gopalaswamitata Chari, namely, Rupees 922-8-0.

1. Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The allowances are granted for life only to Viraragavatata Chari, and should lapse on his death. He was last seen in May 1866, but had then been in hiding since 1852, and may be so still.

3. The Board are of opinion that, as in the case of the Maniems, half the money allowances should be continued to Gopalaswamitata Chariar, and the other half be declared to have finally lapsed.
