In forwarding the accompanying letter from the Deputy Conservator of the Anamallays, I have the honor to request that Government will sanction the entertainment of a second Writer for that Range upon a salary of Rupees 20 per mensem; the charge might be met from working charges during the current year, and be entered in the Budget for 1869-70. Two Writers were formerly* employed in this establishment, but were discontinued several years ago;† it is now found that the extended operations lately sanctioned render the services of the second Writer again necessary.
