Read again Proceedings of Govt under date 8 Septr 1868 No 2383;
Read also the following letter from the Advt General

Under the circumstances of his case the Govt are of opinion that W. Bliss is entitled to draw travelling allowance for his journey from Vizagapatam to Tinnevelly, and they are pleased to authorize the Advt General to disburse to him the amount due.

I do not see why this claim can be upheld. If Mr Bliss had joined his appointment at Kamptee before he applied a Travelling Allowance for the journey would not have been granted.
