No. 53A. Read the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Madras Civil Service, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Bombay, 26th October 1868:—

I have the honor to report my return to India on the evening of the 24th instant, and request that the Government will be pleased to grant me fourteen days' subsidiary leave, to enable me to join my station.

Referred to the Examiner of Claims for report.

(Signed) R. A. DALYELL,
Acting Secretary to Government.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
2nd November 1868.

No. 72.

Eligible to subsidiary leave under Section 11 of the Rules of 1868, but the same will, under the spirit of letter from the Government of India, dated 18th October 1867, No. 3,134, Financial, commence only from the date of Mr. Dykes's arrival at Beypore, or port of debarkation within the limits of this Presidency.

2nd November 1868.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Examiner of Claims.

To the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department.

No. 53B. ORDER THEREON, 3rd November 1868, No. 2,771A.

Miscellaneous.

1. The fourteen days' subsidiary leave for which he applies will be granted to Mr. Dykes under Section 11 of the Rules.

2. With reference to the remark made by the Examiner of Claims, the Government observe that the existing rules are silent in regard to the port of embarkation or debarkation for an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, and merely provide that he shall be allowed subsidiary leave not ordinarily exceeding thirty days in each case.

3. On reference, however, to the report of the Committee for the revision of the Furlough Rules, printed in the Secretary of State's Financial Despatch to the Government of India, under date 13th March 1868, No. 106, a copy of which was forwarded to this Government, it appears that the present Rule XI., which formed Rule XVI., of the Committee's original draft, was framed in order to modify the former provision of the rules in regard to port of embarkation or debarkation, and to enable Officers to select any port most convenient to themselves, provided that they could reach it from their stations within the thirty days, which were to be provided as subsidiary leave in every case.

See paragraph 13 of the Proceedings of the Committee's first Meeting at Simla on the 31st October 1867.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd November 1868.

4. As it now appears that the Audit Department of this Presidency do not give this interpretation to the rules, the Government resolve to refer the following point for the orders of the Government of India, whether under Rule XI., an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough or special leave is at liberty to select as his port of embarkation or debarkation any port in India, provided only that the journey to or from it shall not extend to more than thirty days.

Should we in such a matter, use the agency of a subordinate dept? Would not the proper course be to refer direct to the Govt?
