No. 107. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Account,) to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 9th October 1868, No. 754 A:—

Judicial Department, No. 1,031, dated 26th June 1868, to the address of the Government of India in the Home Department, received in Public Works Department with Financial No. 2,584, dated 21st September 1868, to which latter it had been transferred by the Home Department.

1. The letter from the Government of Madras as per margin, applying for an additional grant for the current year of five lacs for Jail works in the Madras Presidency, having been transferred to this Department for disposal, I am directed to reply as follows:—

2. The Government of India considers it objectionable, as a rule, to give extra grants for any purpose other than famine works, after the grants of the year have been once fixed. The Budget grant should be applied by the Local Government to the works which are most urgently required; and it is very seldom that the urgency of any particular work, or class of works, can be recognised otherwise than in comparison with other works, which the work or class of works in question should displace if really exceptionally urgent.

3. But as it appears, from paragraph 15 of the letter above quoted, that the funds which have been placed at the disposal of the Government of Madras for the current year have been exceptionally drawn upon for famine works, the Governor General in Council on this account agrees to give the amount applied for in this case, subject to confirmation in the Financial Department.
