M.R.O. 1—99,000—16-10-99.

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Revenue DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No.	2884	Press ~~Mis.~~
304 Dated	17-11-	№ 1868.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

REVENUE DEPARTMENT,
FORT ST. GEORGE,
17*th November* 1868.

No. 2,884.

No. 304.
To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

SIR,

Miscellaneous.

1. In a letter, dated Bombay, 26th October 1868, Mr. J. W. B. Dykes, Collector of Nellore, reported his return to India from Europe, and applied for fourteen days' subsidiary leave to enable him to join his station.

2. The Examiner of Claims, in reporting that Mr. Dykes was eligible to subsidiary leave under Section 11 of the Rules of 1868, remarked that the same will, under the spirit of letter from the Government of India, dated 18th October 1867, No. 3,134, Financial, commence only from the date of Mr. Dykes's arrival at Beypore, or port of debarkation within the limits of this Presidency.

3. I am now directed to address the Government of India with reference to the remark made by the Examiner of Claims as above stated.

4. The Government observe that the existing rules are silent in regard to the port of embarkation or debarkation for an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, and merely provide that he shall be allowed subsidiary leave not ordinarily exceeding thirty days in each case.

5. On reference, however, to the report* of the Committee for the revision of the Furlough Rules, printed in the Secretary of State's Financial Despatch to the Government of India, under date 13th March 1868, No. 106, it appears that the present Rule XI., which formed Rule XVI. of the Committee's original draft, was framed in order to modify the former provision of the rules in regard to ports of embarkation or debarkation, and to enable Officers to select any port most convenient to themselves, provided that they could reach it from their stations within the thirty days, which were to be provided as subsidiary leave in every case.

* Communicated with Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, 14th April 1868, No. 2,198.

See paragraph 13 of the Proceedings of the Committee's first meeting at Simla on the 31st October 1867.

6. As it now appears that the Audit Department of this Presidency does not give this interpretation to the rules, I am directed to refer the following point for the orders of the Government of India, viz., whether under Rule XI. an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, or special leave, is at liberty to select as his port of embarkation or debarkation any port in India, provided only that the journey to it or from it shall not extend to more than thirty days.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

(Signed) R. A. DALYELL,
Acting Secretary to Government.

Exd. F. R. Bantleman.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT,
FORT ST. GEORGE,
17*th November* 1868.

No. 2,884.

No. 304.
To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

SIR,

Miscellaneous.

1. In a letter, dated Bombay, 26th October 1868, Mr. J. W. B. Dykes, Collector of Nellore, reported his return to India from Europe, and applied for fourteen days' subsidiary leave to enable him to join his station.

2. The Examiner of Claims, in reporting that Mr. Dykes was eligible to subsidiary leave under Section 11 of the Rules of 1868, remarked that the same will, under the spirit of letter from the Government of India, dated 18th October 1867, No. 3,134, Financial, commence only from the date of Mr. Dykes's arrival at Beypore, or port of debarkation within the limits of this Presidency.

3. I am now directed to address the Government of India with reference to the remark made by the Examiner of Claims as above stated.

4. The Government observe that the existing rules are silent in regard to the port of embarkation or debarkation for an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, and merely provide that he shall be allowed subsidiary leave not ordinarily exceeding thirty days in each case.

5. On reference, however, to the report* of the Committee for the revision of the Furlough Rules, printed in the Secretary of State's Financial Despatch to the Government of India, under date 13th March 1868, No. 106, it appears that the present Rule XI., which formed Rule XVI. of the Committee's original draft, was framed in order to modify the former provision of the rules in regard to ports of embarkation or debarkation, and to enable Officers to select any port most convenient to themselves, provided that they could reach it from their stations within the thirty days, which were to be provided as subsidiary leave in every case.

* Communicated with Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, 14th April 1868, No. 2,198.

See paragraph 13 of the Proceedings of the Committee's first meeting at Simla on the 31st October 1867.

6. As it now appears that the Audit Department of this Presidency does not give this interpretation to the rules, I am directed to refer the following point for the orders of the Government of India, viz., whether under Rule XI. an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, or special leave, is at liberty to select as his port of embarkation or debarkation any port in India, provided only that the journey to it or from it shall not extend to more than thirty days.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

(Signed) R. A. DALYELL,
Acting Secretary to Government.

Exd. F. R. Bantleman.

Financial 1868 Department.

[ ]

From Government of
Fort St. George.

Dated 17th Nov. } No. 2,884.
Enclosures.
R. } 6 spare copies.

D. No. } Progs. { D.
L. No. { No.

Inquiring whether under Section XI. of the leave Rules of 1868 an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, or special leave, is at liberty to select as his port of embarkation or debarkation any port in India, provided only that the journey to it or from it shall not extend to more than thirty days.

17th Nov 1868.

Rev.n Department

No. 2884.

To

The Secretary to the Govt. of India.

Finl. Department

Sir,

1 In a letter, dated Bombay 26th October 1868, Mr. J. W. D. Dykes of ~~the Madras Civil Service~~ Collector at Tellicherry reported his return to India from Europe, and applied for fourteen days subsidiary leave to enable him to join his station.

2. The Examiner of Claims, in reporting that Mr. Dykes was eligible to subsidiary leave under Section 11 of the Rules of of 1868, remarked, that the same will be done under the spirit of letter from the Govt. of India dated 18th October 1867 No. 3134, Financial, commence only from the date of Mrs. Dykes' arrival at Beypore, or port of debarkation within the limits of this Presidency.

3 The fourteen days subsidiary leave applied for by Mrs. Dykes has been granted.

4 I am now directed to address the Government of India with reference to the remark made by the Examiner of Claims as above stated.

The

5 The Government observe that the existing rules are silent in regard to the port of embarkation or debarkation for an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, and merely provide that he shall be allowed subsidiary leave not ordinarily exceeding thirty days in each case.

6 On reference, however, to the report of the Committee for the revision of the Furlough Rules, printed in the Secy. of State's Fin. Despatch to the Government of India, under date 13th March 1868, No. 106, it appears that the municated with Govt of India Fin. Dept. 14 April 1868 No. 2198.

present Rule XI, which formed Rule XVI of the Committee's original draft, was framed in order to modify the former provision of the rules in regard to port of embarkation or debarkation, and to enable officers to select any port most convenient to themselves, provided that they could reach it from their stations within the thirty days, which were to be provided as subsidiary leave in every case.

See paragraph 13 of the Proc: of the Committee's first meeting at Simla on the 31st October 1867.

7. As it now appears that the Audit Department of this Presidency does not give this interpretation to the rules rules, I am directed to refer the following point for the orders of the Government of India, whether under Rule XI, an Officer proceeding on, or returning from furlough, or special leave, is at liberty to select as his port of embarkation or debarkation any port in India, provided only that the journey to it or from it shall not extend to more than thirty days.

4

To Gov. of India

Respecting Section 11 of the Leave Rules of 1868 — in connection with the — Ry Rlys' Subsidiary Leave —

(2 Sets)