It is observed that the special expenditure which this Government has deemed it necessary to incur for the relief of distress in the Madras and other districts of this Presidency has already received the approval of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State and of the Government of India. It has been reported to these authorities that the Collectors of those districts in which distress prevailed have been authorised to expend such amounts as might be necessary to give employment to the distressed poor and to increase the supply of water for domestic purposes, and measures have recently been taken to ascertain to what this expenditure has amounted. On receipt of this information, application will be made to the Government of India for a special grant.
