No. 232. Read the following Endorsement of the Examiner of Claims, dated 14th December 1868:—

Read the following letter from W. WILSON, Esq., to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 6th December 1868.

I beg to inform you, for communication to Government, that I propose to avail myself of the furlough and subsidiary leave granted me in G. O., No. 22, dated 29th September 1868, from the afternoon of the 22nd instant, on which date I shall hand over charge of the district to the Acting Head Assistant Collector, Mr. Stuart. As the period intervening between that and Mr. Thornhill's return will be chiefly holiday time, there will not be any interruption to public business. I hope to catch the P. and O. steamer of 26th December, and shall be obliged therefore by being permitted to leave either by that or by the first steamer in January, as I at first requested. My subsidiary leave dating from 22nd, there will not, I fancy, be any objection to my furlough being availed of at a later date of the same month. As it is possible that I may be unable to land at Madras, but have to step from one steamer to the other, I shall be much obliged by your informing me at your earliest convenience whether I may go on the 26th December, if I can manage to catch the steamer.

SUBMITTED, through the Examiner of Claims, for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. Should Mr. Thornhill's services be required in the Madras District, the Board recommend the appointment of the Acting Collector to join before Mr. Wilson's departure.

By order,
(Signed) A. MACGREGOR,
Acting Secretary.

Examiner of Claims.

No. 233. ORDER THEREON, 15th December 1868, No. 3,125.

Miscellaneous.

1. Ordered, accordingly, that Mr. Wilson be granted subsidiary leave from the 22nd instant, and that he be permitted to proceed on furlough by the most convenient opportunity after that date.

2. Mr. Comyn has been directed to proceed to Masulipatam forthwith, and will probably reach the District before Mr. Wilson's departure.
