No. 191. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, (Separate Revenue—Assessed Taxes,) to the Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Fort William, 18th January 1868, No. 203 :—

In reply to your letter No. 2,361, dated the 8th October last, inquiring whether a person who has quitted his employment in the Bangalore Pay Office for an appointment in the Mysore Commission has any claim for a refund of License tax, on the ground that in his present position he is not liable to the tax, I am directed to state that the refund may be allowed when, as in the particular case described in the enclosure of your communication, the transfer is to an appointment which is not connected with any graded service of the Indian Government, but in which the incumbent will be confined to service in Mysore for the rest of his career, looking for no promotion outside of Mysore.
