No. 84. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th August 1867, No. 5,326.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Bellary, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 12th July 1867, No. 130.

The Inam Commissioner having requested that the undermentioned personal Inam of Kantalam Ayana and Chicka Basanna, which was attached thirty years ago, may be restored to them, with the past proceeds, I have the honor to request the sanction of the Board of Revenue for the refund to the Inamdars of Rupees 62-5-0, being the proceeds realized from the said Inam during attachment, which have been credited to "Miscellaneous" under "Land Revenue" in the accounts of this Office, as noted in the margin.

1. The Collector recommends the refund of the money brought to account only in Fusly 1275. He will state what has become of the proceeds of the Inam for the last thirty years during which it was under attachment.

2. The Inam Commissioner will be requested to furnish the Board with a copy of his letter ordering the registration of the Inam in question, and to state under what circumstances the Inam was attached, and why it has been kept under attachment for the last thirty years without being finally resumed.

No. 85. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th December 1867, No. 8,118.

Read again letter from the Collector of Bellary, dated 12th July 1867, No. 130, recorded in the Board's Proceedings, dated 17th August 1867, No. 5,326.

Read also the following letters.

From the Collector of Bellary, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 29th October 1867, No. 202.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 5,326, dated 17th August last, and their Official Memorandum, dated 21st October 1867, requesting to be informed what has become of the proceeds of the Inam in Viraladinni, in the Talook of Adoni, for the last thirty years during which it was under attachment, I have the honor to state that the said Inam was not cultivated until Fusly 1272, and that the proceeds of each year until Fusly 1275 inclusive, were credited under "Land Revenue Miscellaneous," the Inam being entered in the accounts as "Amanat."

From the Officiating Inam Commissioner, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 9th September 1867, No. 22.

1. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th August 1867, No. 5,326.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 7th January 1868.

2. The Inam was attached thirty years ago, on account of the Inamdar's failure to meet the Appanam obligation. It was, however, found on inquiry made by this department that the attachment was an error, since the Inam was not service but personal, and it is on Service Inams alone that there is any Appanam obligation. The Inam was, therefore, ordered to be released from attachment with past proceeds.

3. The Inam was not finally resumed by the Collector, evidently because he considered that it should be restored as soon as the Inamdar fulfilled the Appanam obligation.

4. From my Register it appears that the Inam was waste from the date of its attachment up to Fusly 1271, the date of the settlement, and I presume that it continued so up to Fusly 1275, when it having been cultivated the proceeds were kept in deposit.

5. My letter to the Collector of Bellary does not contain any further particulars than I have given above.

1. From the foregoing letter of the Officiating Inam Commissioner, a certain Inam appears to have been erroneously attached thirty years ago, on failure of the Inamdars to comply with the Appanam obligation. But during the Inam Settlement, the Inam having been found to be a personal Inam and not a Service one, it was ordered by him to be released from attachment.
