Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 7th January 1868.

No. 87. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th December 1867, No. 8,063:—

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of the Kistna District, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 14th November 1867, No. 405.

1. In reply to Board's Proceedings, dated 30th ultimo, I have the honor to observe that the proposal made in my letter, No. 301, dated 29th August last, and assented to by the Board, involved the charge of a proportionally reduced quit-rent on the extent of land given under a new Title Deed to the Inamdars; their prayer was for the resumption of an extent of land, the full assessment of which would be equal to the quit-rent. The Officiating Inam Commissioner, in his letter No. 9, dated 3rd April 1867, to the Board, remarked upon the objections there were in practice to this mode of redeeming quit-rent. In the cases now under reference, that portion of the land, the liability of which to flooding is an almost certain contingency, is simply valueless to Government, and its assessment is no equivalent whatever for the quit-rent it professes to compensate. Practically it will come to the same thing, whether the present extent of the Inam with a reduced quit-rent is recognized, or reduced area with a proportionately reduced quit-rent.

2. The wish of the Inamdars is to be free of quit-rent, but Government do not seem to recognize their claim to anything beyond reduction of that now charged, and the most practical way of doing so that occurs to me is to adopt the suggestion I have already made, leaving to the Inamdars to point out the land they choose to be enfranchised.

3. The information called for in paragraphs 2 and 3 will, I presume, be furnished by the Inam Commissioner; but, for the information of the Board, I beg to enclose an extract Memorandum of entries relating to the Inams now under notice, and that in the "Kykalur* Purgunnah."

* The quotation of Culdindy is, on reference to the Proceedings, evidently an error.
