Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd February 1868.

No. 477. Read the following letter from the Officiating Conservator of Forests, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Camp at Ootacamund, 15th February 1868, No. 558 :—

As there is just now a very large demand in Bombay for our Annamallay Teak, Lieutenant Gosling finds the services of three more elephants absolutely necessary to enable him to slip the timber in time to meet the demand, I have the honor to request that Government will apply to the Military Department for the services of three powerful elephants from Hoonsúr. They might be despatched at once to Annamallay; their services will only be required for about three months.

No. 478. ORDER THEREON, 22nd February 1868, No. 505.

Forests, No. 15.

Application will be made to the Military Department for the services of three powerful elephants to be placed at the disposal of the Forest Department, if available, for employment on the Annamallays during the next three months.
