Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
25th February 1868.

No. 298. Read the following letter from the Acting Magistrate of the Kistna District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Gudivada, 28th January 1868, No. 48.

Under the Order of Government quoted in the margin, the charge of Subsidiary Jails was made over to the Subordinate Magistracy, whose Duffadars—not the Police according to the practice theretofore existing—hold the keys and cater for the prisoners confined. There is in general no inconvenience felt from this arrangement. At Guntoor, however, on the highroad from Madras to Calcutta, and a place of considerable resort by merchants and traders, the Taluq Duffadar and Peons are very much occupied in the business of supplying bandies, bearers, &c.; and the additional duty of having to attend to the wants of the prisoners confined in the Subsidiary Jail is found to press rather heavily upon them. The number of Peons in this Taluq is the same as in all others, and the greater part are necessarily employed in their more proper revenue duties. For the wants of travellers, however, some must be kept about Head Quarters. The Tahsildar suggests that an Attender, on 10 Rupees a month, be appointed for the Subsidiary Jail, which is distant from the Cutcherry about half a mile, and I have the honor to request that Government will, under the special circumstances of the place, be pleased to sanction the appointment.

Dated 20th February 1867, No. 260.

No. 299. ORDER THEREON, 25th February 1868, No. 319.

The Magistrate of the Kistna District is informed that the Government see no sufficient reason for sanctioning the appointment of an Attender on Rupees 10 per mensem for the Subsidiary Jail at Guntoor.

2. The Taluq Duffadar and Peons referred to by the Magistrate should be required to confine their attention to the performance of their own proper duties; the wants of travellers being met from the general market.
