No sunnah. The Incumbent has enjoyed the grant from a light in making long time & their names are registered in current accounts.	For keeping By descent.	15th February 1835.	The allowance of Rs 60 enjoyed by Saiyad Buddan and Saiyad Hussein has been registered in the name of Saiyad Buddan alone Vide. M. C. dated 16th February 1834 No. 211.
No sunnah. The claim to the Yomiah is founded on long enjoyment.	For rendering service as a Darin long enjoyment.	Do 15th October 1835.
As per sunnah of Mr. Alexander Reid.	For instructing children.	By descent. 16th January 1835.	The original Yomiah granted to Narasimma Jooi amounted to Rs 35 per annum, and it descended to his son Vidya after whose death in Fusli 1167 it was registered in 2 shares of Rs 17.80 each in the names of Narasimma Jooi the son, and Baramma Jooi the brother of the deceased. Narasimma Jooi's share descended to his son Lutchanna Baramma Jooi in Fusli 1230, and subsequently in 1848 to his brother Baramma Jooi - This person died in 1850 without issue, and his share was conferred on his mother Cuppamal for life. Narasimma Jooi's share was then ordered to be continued to his family on hereditary tenure.
Held under sunnah from the children of the Cuddajah Nawab.	For educating the children of the Cuddajah Nawab.	Do 15th June 1835.	The grant was registered in the names of these persons by order of Government, dated the 16th January 1835.
Under sunnah from Tipu Sultan's sunnah.	Charity	Do. 11th September 1837.	The original amount of this Yomiah was Rs 6.13-7 at the death of the 1st grantee, the allowance was conferred on his widow Lukturn Shah who died in 1833. It was then directed in Government orders dated 11th September 1837 and 17th October 1837 that the Yomiah should be reduced to half its original amount, and registered in the names of these incumbents.
Under sunnah from Tipu Sultan's sunnah.	Charity	By descent. 16th January 1835.	This Yomiah though granted as a charity was in fact a subsistence settled on the family and descendants of one Meer Mahommed who died in Battle at Arcot fighting for Tipu. The Yomiah was continued to his son Mir Ahmad at the reduced rate of Rs 136 12 7 at the death of Mir Ahmad in Fusli 1240, a minute enquiry was held in regard to the heirs of the deceased, and a full report was furnished to the Board on the subject in 1831. The Government directed in Minute, dated the 16th January 1835 that the Yomiah should be continued in the following proportions Mir Jaffer 61-12 7 Subahib 25-0 0
Under sunnah from Tipu Sultan's sunnah.	For subsistence.	Do. 17th December 1830.	The Yomiah was granted in the first instance for imparting instruction to children. The amount at first was Rs. 120-0-0 After the death of the original grantee the Yomiah was continued to his eldest son at reduced rate of Rs 44 Rs. per year Board's order dated 30th April 1813. At the demise of the grantee it was settled on his brother by sanction of Government dated 25th May 1835. This last Yomiahdar died leaving two widows, Patchala and Lalbi, and Government ordered that one third of the Yomiah should be conferred on each of the widows for life. Of these 2 widows, Patchala died on the 19th September 1863.
No sunnah.	For subsistence.	By descent. 24th April 1835.
Under Sunnah from Cuddajah Nawab.	Do.	By right of descent. 28th April 1835.	The original amount of this Yomiah was Rs. 142-6-0; at the death of the original grantee it was continued to his brother Hussein Beg, who died in Fusli 1239, the Yomiah was then conferred on his heirs of whom the present incumbent is the sole survivor.
