Proceedings of the Madras Government, Legislative Department, 8th January 1868.

No. 1. Read the following telegram from the Financial Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort William, 13th December 1867, No. 3018.

The Governor General withholds his assent to the Madras Salt Excise Bill, which he thinks should be re-enacted with the omission of the Arbitration Clauses. His Excellency requires, instead, clauses defining rules by which compensation is to be awarded to persons entitled to such compensation under Clause six. Instead of arbitration, the Governor General would give the claimant an appeal from the Collector to the Board of Revenue. The Governor General would also approve of Clauses twenty-seven and thirty-seven, on the understanding that the Government of Madras remits the whole of the Excise duty upon at least quantity landed at the port to which it is exported.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 8th January 1868, No. 4.

Ordered that a copy of this telegram be furnished to the Board of Revenue for report. A copy will also be forwarded to the Revenue Department.
