With reference to the Order of Government, under date 6th February 1868, No. 340, authorizing the Collector of Sea Customs to remit the Import duty on certain medicines imported for the Ranipett Dispensary, I am directed to request information as to whether the Order, under date 26th August 1864, No. 1,557 which directs that articles imported for charitable uses shall not in future be exempted from the payment of the regular Customs dues, is to be considered as cancelled.

2. Notwithstanding the last named Order, it has been the practice for the Board to exercise their discretion, as chief Customs authority, in remitting the duty in certain cases, and they are of opinion that the practice should be continued.
