Miscellaneous.

Dated 8th April 1868, No. 948.

1. The Government have in their Order dated 4th April 1868, No. 898, directed the Collector of Kurnool to convey to Budda Vengala Reddi, of Oilwada, in Koilgoontha talook, the expression of the high appreciation by Her Majesty's Government of his munificent liberality to his destitute countrymen in the famine of 1866.

2. The Government, however, desire to mark their sense of the value of his services to the cause of humanity by some more substantial and lasting token, and they accordingly resolve to direct the Collector of Kurnool to cause an armlet of gold, of the value of three hundred Rupees, to be manufactured, of such pattern as the Reddi may prefer, and to present it to him with a suitable inscription, in English and Telugu, commemorating the occasion, and expressive of the intention with which it is conferred.

3. He will furnish the Reddi with a copy of this order.
