Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st April 1869.

No. 443. Read the following letter from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 18th March 1869, No. 247:—

I HAVE the honor to forward the enclosed Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 1,645, dated 11th instant, and to state that N. Parthasarady Naidu, the particulars of whose case are set forth therein, cannot, under any existing rule, claim pay for the time occupied in rejoining the Nellore District, as he was, during that period, actually out of employ, having lost his post at Bellary from failure to qualify for it, and his own post at Nellore having been permanently filled up.

2. The hardship to N. Parthasarady, resulting from his place in Nellore being permanently filled up, will not consist merely in the loss of pay for the period in question, but it will affect his title to pension. Should Government on these considerations take a favorable view of the case, I would respectfully suggest that it be submitted for the confirmation of the Supreme Government.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th March 1869, No. 1,645 :—

Read again Board's Proceedings, 31st August 1868, No. 6,214, and 4th December 1868, No. 8,542.

Read also the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 1st February 1869, No. 246.

As sanctioned in Board's Proceedings, dated 4th December 1868, No. 8,542, subsistence allowance was passed to Nadikuppam Parthasarady Naidu, Acting Talook Sheristadar of Rapur, but the Accountant-General has disallowed it, on the ground that there is no rule which would allow subsistence allowance being paid to him for the period he was out of employ. I therefore request Board's authority for the Accountant-General recognising the charge.

SUBMITTED to Government, through the Accountant-General, with the request that they will sanction payment of Rupees 28-1-3 to N. Parthasarady Naidu, as subsistence allowance for the time, (one month and twenty-seven days,) during which he was out of employ when re-transferred from Bellary to Nellore.

N. Parthasarady Naidu, when Sub-Magistrate of Vencatagherry, in the Nellore District, was allowed to act as Tahsildar of Hurpunhully, in the Bellary District, on the condition that he should pass the requisite Special Tests. From time to time he passed all the tests, except that in Precis-Writing ; and as he failed twice in this subject, the Board directed that he should revert to his old appointment in their Proceedings, dated 4th June 1868, No. 4,119. It was then discovered that the Sub-Magistracy of Vencatagherry had been filled up permanently by Mr. Dykes on the 1st June 1866. Provision was made for N. Parthasarady Naidu as Sheristadar of Rapur directly he arrived at Nellore ; but during the time which elapsed between his leaving Hurpunhully and arriving at Rapur, he held no appointment, and was entitled to no pay.

G. O., 19th December 1864, No. 2,276.
„ 28th March 1866, „ 767.

2. For obvious reasons the Board considered the case a hard one, and a sufficient amount being available out of the pay of the previous incumbent of the office to which N. Parthasarady Naidu was newly appointed, the Board sanctioned payment to him of subsistence allowance at the rate of one-fourth of a Talook Sheristadar's pay.

3. As the Accountant-General has refused to pass this charge, it is submitted to Government for special sanction.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
21st April 1869.

No. 444. ORDER THEREON, 21st April 1869, No. 1,083.

Miscellaneous.

THE appointment held by N. Parthasarady Naidu in the Nellore District should not have been permanently filled up till he was otherwise permanently provided for. This mistake cannot now be corrected, and the Right Honorable the Governor, therefore, sanctions the payment to Parthasarady Naidu of Rupees (28-1-3) twenty-eight Anna one and Pies three, as subsistence allowance for the one month and twenty-seven days during which he was out of employ, as a special case.

2. The suggestion made in paragraph 2 of the Accountant-General's letter will be considered in the Public Department.
