Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd July 1869.

No. 56. Read the following letter from the Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Simla, 22nd June 1869, No. 1,440 :—

I AM desired to acknowledge the receipt of your communication, No. 1,994, dated 18th ultimo, with enclosures, and in reply to state that in the opinion of the Governor-General in Council, under the law as it stands, dutiable goods which are imported into an Indian Port, (except such as imported by steamer into Calcutta, Bombay, or Madras, which are specially provided for by Act XX. of 1867,) must first pay Import-duty before they can be transhipped for export to a foreign port.

2. When even Act VI. of 1863 comes to be revised, the expediency of extending to sailing ships the provisions of Act XX. of 1867 will be taken into consideration. Meanwhile, the action taken by the Bombay Government in the case described in the papers forwarded, is approved, and the same course may be followed in similar cases, pending the alteration of the law.

COPIES to Bengal, with reference to their No. 1,426, dated 8th April 1869, and to Madras, with the remark that in the case referred to the Bombay Government allowed a drawback to be granted of duties paid on certain dates which had been imported into Bombay by a sailing vessel, and there transhipped for export to America.

(Signed) G. H. M. BATTEN,
Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.
