PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 5th August 1869.

Read the following letter from G. BANBURY, Esq., Collector of Trichinopoly, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 19th June 1869, No. 140:—

WITH reference to the Orders of Government dated 30th November last, No. 2,990, received through the Board, I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from my Treasury Deputy to whom the matter was referred for enquiry.

2. I find from the above report that the Kavilgars referred to in the Government Order have not been prevented by any good and sufficient cause from drawing their allowances regularly every year. The only excuse urged by them is, that they were laid up with Rheumatism, but the Deputy Collector who personally saw the two surviving incumbents is of opinion that they look far too healthy to have been invalids for so many years. I am therefore led to think that these men have allowed their allowances to fall into arrears under the idea that they could draw them whenever they pleased. This does not appear to be the first time that they have thus delayed receiving their pension. In June 1861, when the last payments were made, they obtained their pensions in arrears for three or four Fuslies.

3. Under these circumstances, I think that these men should, according to the Standing Order* of the Government of India, be made to forfeit their allowances, at least for the period suggested by the Deputy Collector, so that it may serve as a lesson to be more regular in future. I would therefore recommend that the arrears of allowances for Fuslies 1276 and 1277 alone be paid to the two Kavilgars now living, their pensions being continued, and that the heirs of the two deceased Kavilgars be paid only the arrears from Fusly 1273, up to the death of the deceased, as per the enclosed Statement of the Deputy Collector.

* No. 52, dated 14th November 1856.

SUBMITTED to Government, with reference to Government Order, dated 30th November 1868, No. 2,990.
