Dated 31 August 1949

Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 455. Read the following letter from the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 11th August 1869, No. 5,920:—

G. O., dated 21st Jan. 1869, No. 48, Fl. Dept.
" " 31st March " " 161, do.
" " 26th May " " 239, do.

With reference to the orders of Government noted in the margin, I am directed to request that you will inform me whether the heads of departments are at liberty in the case of sick leave, as of privilege leave, to apply for the sanction of Government in cases where extra expenditure is necessitated in providing substitutes.

2. Under the old rule, where each substitute drew half his own pay and half that of the appointment in which he acted, there was always a sufficient sum available to provide a substitute, and no extra expenditure was ever involved.

3. Thus, when Mr. Aviet, 2nd Accountant in the Board's office, was appointed Acting Manager of the office of the Collector of Sea-Customs for three months on the 6th instant, if the old rules had been in force, half his salary, or Rupees 100, would have been available in this office for providing substitutes. According to the usual practice, this would have been distributed amongst the Accountants, the 3rd Accountant drawing half his own pay and half that of the 2nd Accountant, and so on, and half the pay of the last Accountant appointed to act for one of a higher grade would have been available for his substitute.

	Rs.
Mr. Atkinson's pay	700
Deduct moiety drawn by himself ...	350
Sum available ...	350

Which is distributed thus—

	Substantive pay.		Deputation allowance.		Total.
Mr. G. B. Shaw, Appraiser ...	500	+	140	=	640
Mr. T. G. Blake, Assistant Appraiser... ...	300	+	100	=	400
Mr. W. E. Fox, Manager, in the Sea-Custom office	225	+	60	=	285
Mr. Aviet, 2nd Accountant in the Board's Office ...	200	+	25	=	225
T. Gopaulkistna Pillay, 3rd Accountant in the Board's office ...	175	+	25	=	200
			350

4. Under the present rules, however, 25 Rupees only, instead of Rs. 100, is available. It is necessary to give the whole of this to the 3rd Accountant who takes charge of Mr. Aviet's duties and responsibilities. There is then nothing left, and the office will have one Accountant less than its proper complement till Mr. Aviet returns, or his confirmed in his acting post.

5. If the Government are not prepared to sanction extra expenditure in such cases, the Board will be obliged to refuse to let any of their servants of the higher rank take temporary employment in other offices.
