Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th September 1869.

No. 110.

Dated 6th September 1869, No. 2,519.

Miscellaneous.

8th April 1868, No. 953.
23rd ,, ,, ,, 1,099.

In the orders of Government noted in the margin, it was ruled that unless Mr. Deputy Collector Macgregor passed the Revenue and Translation Tests at the Special Test Examination to be held in August 1868, he would be suspended from employment and allowances until he qualified under the rules.

2. Subsequent to the issue of these orders, Mr. Macgregor was nominated to an office in the Police Department, and has probably had but little time for study while so employed. Mr. Macgregor has, however, now been relieved from duty in the Police Department, and it is necessary that he should qualify himself under the Examination Rules for further employment in the Revenue Department.

3. The Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations will accordingly be directed to arrange for the special examination of Mr. Macgregor, in March 1870, according to the Translation Test, Lower Grade, and the Revenue Test, Higher Grade.

4. Should Mr. Macgregor fail to come up to the required standard in both subjects on that occasion, he must distinctly understand that he will be removed from his appointment of Deputy Collector.
