*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
2nd October 1869.*

No. 12. Read the following letter from R. E. MASTER, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement, (through the Acting Accountant-General,) to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 16th September 1869, No. 1,323-33 :—

In forwarding, through the Accountant-General, for the consideration and orders of Government, the correspondence noted in the margin, (in original, to be returned,) relating to the allowance of Captain C. J. Stuart, Assistant-Director of Revenue Settlement, and lately acting as Deputy-Director during the absence of Mr. Cox on privilege leave, I have the honour to state, that in G. O., 24th June last, No. 1,800, the Letter from Acting Deputy-Director, Cuddapah, 14th August 1869, No. 973.

To Accountant-General, 17th August 1869, No. 1,115.
From Deputy-Accountant-General, 21st August 1869, No. 3,343.
Director's Proceedings, 23rd August 1869, No. 1,178.
Letter from Officiating Deputy-Director, Cuddapah, 10th September 1869, No. 1,083, (with enclosure).

Government concurred in the opinion expressed by the Accountant-General, that Captain Stuart's deputation allowance should be calculated on the special salary of the Officiating Deputy-Director, Mr. Cox, viz., Rupees 700.

2. Captain Stuart accordingly submitted a bill for deputation allowance at thirty per cent. of this sum.

3. To this the Deputy-Accountant-General objected, and, under para. 3 of the Government of India order, dated 30th July 1868, passed to him his Staff pay in full, a moiety of his pay as Assistant-Director, and a moiety of that of the Officiating Deputy-Director.

4. Against this Captain Stuart appealed, quoting Government of India order, dated 18th October 1868, whereby an officer, not relieved of his substantive duties, is entitled to the whole of his substantive allowances, in addition to deputation allowance at thirty per cent.

5. The Acting Deputy-Accountant-General, in reply, maintained that this position was untenable inasmuch as the condition attached to the Rule was, that the total allowances drawn should not exceed the pay of the appointment acted in, whereas Captain Stuart's allowances so calculated did exceed it, and that, for the same reason, he could not draw allowances under para. 1 of the order of 30th July 1868. His allowances were therefore passed under para. 3 of that order; Mr. Cox's salary being treated as Staff salary.

6. Captain Stuart now requests that the matter may be referred for the orders of Government. He observes that the gist of the Acting Deputy-Accountant-General's objection is, that his (Captain Stuart's) total allowances as claimed; exceed Mr. Cox's pay, but he points out that, even according to the Rule adopted by the Acting Deputy-Accountant-General, his allowances are in excess of those of Mr. Cox. He therefore solicits that Government may be pleased to re-consider their order of the 24th June last, No. 1,800, and authorise him to receive deputation allowance calculated on the full sanctioned salary of a Covenanted Deputy-Director, viz., Rupees 1,200,

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
2nd October 1869.*

No. 13. ORDER THEREON, 2nd October 1869, No. 2,706.

Miscellaneous.

It appears from the correspondence recorded above, that Captain Stuart, while acting for Captain Cox as Deputy-Director of Revenue Settlement, has drawn Rupees 986-9-0 per mensem, instead of Rupees 700-1-0, the salary of his permanent office. The Accountant-General has passed the former rate, as he considered Rupees 700, the salary drawn by Mr. Cox, for whom Captain Stuart was Officiating, to be the Staff salary of the office.

2. The Government consider that the view taken by the Accountant-General is correct, and with reference to the concluding paragraph of Mr. Master's letter, dated 16th September 1869, they observe that the salary of Rupees 1,200 is claimable only when the office of Deputy-Director of Settlement is held by a member of the Covenanted Civil Service.
