The daughters of the elder widow of the deceased live with their husbands. The deceased had also puttah lands to the extent of A. 20, C. 11, As. 5, assessed at Rupees 39-12-0, which are reported to be jointly enjoyed by his two widows and Mutti Kondama Naidoo, the son of Kondama Naidoo, one of the sharers in the allowance, and one Nagammah, widow of Puttanah, whose name is not shown in this statement.	This allowance, which had been originally granted to Thathama Naidoo as recognised in the administration of Colonel, afterwards Sir Thomas Munro, or of Mr. Ross, was continued to his son Malappah Naidoo, on whose demise it was renewed in the name of his son Thathama Naidoo; the last holder under Government Order of the 14th May recorded in the statement submitted by the Board on 26th April 1850. The Acting Sub-Collector, in whose division the Poligar family resides, report (Docket No. 218, dated 3rd July 1869), that the last incumbent Thathama Naidoo has left no male issue, but two widows, who have no other means of maintenance than some puttah lands held in shares as specified in column 7 of this report. Under the circumstances reported, I beg to recommend that the share, (namely, Rupees 6-13-11 a-month or Rupees 82-7-0 per annum) held by the deceased Thathama Naidoo be continued in equal shares to his widows Yerikalammah and Nagamma for life, and that the other shareholders of the family be left undisturbed. In the event of the Government acceding to this recommendation, the arrears (Rupees 5-11-8) due to the deceased from the 1st to 18th inclusive of March 1869, should also be sanctioned for disbursement to the said widows.
