1844. I have just received from the British Museum
a copy of the "History of the British Museum"

which is a very interesting and valuable work.
It contains a complete history
of the Museum
from its founding in 1753
to the present time. It is written by
Mr. Thomas
Agnes Newman, who was one of the first librarians
of the Museum.
The work is
very well
written and contains many interesting
details of the history of the Museum.
