Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th August 1869.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Financial Department, dated 16th August 1869, No. 362 :—

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Pension Department, dated 4th August 1869, No. 228.

Read the following letter from the Controller of Military Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort Saint George, 9th July 1869.

I HAVE the honour to forward a letter from the Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, dated 25th June 1869, No. 91, inquiring whether Moochies in public offices, who do book-binding work, come under the operation of the despatch published in the Financial Notification of the Government of India, dated 2nd March 1869, No. 1,407, which admits "Book-binders permanently employed in Government establishments to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules."

Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 23rd March 1869, page 433.

2. "Book-binders" are not employed in the Military offices of this Presidency, but Moochies, who are generally acquainted with the work of book-binding, are, as occasion may require, employed on that duty in addition to their own.

3. These have not hitherto been considered as permanent public servants, and no pensionary provision has been made for them ; but, under a recent despatch from the Secretary of State, a compassionate allowance, not exceeding Rupees 4 per mensem, has been granted to them on being pronounced unfit for further duty after thirty-five years' approved service.

Financial Notification of the Government of India, No. 3,272, of 25th November 1868, at page 995 of Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 22nd December 1868.

From the Acting Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort Saint George, 25th June 1869, No. 91.

WITH reference to the Notification by the Government of India, No. 1,407, dated 2nd March 1869, Financial Department, re-published in the Fort Saint George Gazette, page 433 of 1869, promulgating a despatch from His Grace the Duke of Argyll, confirming the recommendation of the Government of Bombay that "Book-binders permanently employed in Government establishments should be admitted to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules," I have the honour to inquire whether Moochies in public offices, who do book-binding work, are to be considered as coming under the operation of the ruling quoted.

2. In this office there are four Moochies receiving salaries as shown in the margin : all of them are required to bind books in addition to the ordinary duties of Moochies, and no Moochie is entertained in this office who does not know the art of book-binding.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th August 1869.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Financial Department, dated 16th August 1869, No. 362 :—

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Pension Department, dated 4th August 1869, No. 228.

Read the following letter from the Controller of Military Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort Saint George, 9th July 1869.

I have the honour to forward a letter from the Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, dated 25th June 1869, No. 91, inquiring whether Moochies in public offices, who do book-binding work, come under the operation of the despatch published in the Financial Notification of the Government of India, dated 2nd March 1869, No. 1,407, which admits "Book-binders permanently employed in Government establishments to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules."

Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 23rd March 1869, page 433.

2. "Book-binders" are not employed in the Military offices of this Presidency, but Moochies, who are generally acquainted with the work of book-binding, are, as occasion may require, employed on that duty in addition to their own.

3. These have not hitherto been considered as permanent public servants, and no pensionary provision has been made for them; but, under a recent despatch from the Secretary of State, a compassionate allowance, not exceeding Rupees 4 per mensem, has been granted to them on being pronounced unfit for further duty after thirty-five years' approved service.

Financial Notification of the Government of India, No. 3,272, of 25th November 1868, at 995 of Fort Saint George Gazette, ..ed 22nd December 1868.

From the Acting Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort Saint George, 25th June 1869, No. 91.

With reference to the Notification by the Government of India, No. 1,407, dated 2nd March 1869, Financial Department, re-published in the Fort Saint George Gazette, page 433 of 1869, promulgating a despatch from His Grace the Duke of Argyll, confirming the recommendation of the Government of Bombay that "Book-binders permanently employed in Government establishments should be admitted to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules," I have the honour to inquire whether Moochies in public offices, who do book-binding work, are to be considered as coming under the operation of the ruling quoted.

2. In this office there are four Moochies receiving salaries as shown in the margin : all of them are required to bind books in addition to the ordinary duties of Moochies, and no Moochie is entertained in this office who does not know the art of book-binding.
