WITH reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 5,188, dated 20th July 1869, calling for a report of the circumstances which rendered it necessary to appoint formally a substitute at increased expense to the State during the absence on leave of the Head-Tappal-Goomastah, I have the honour to inform you that the Head-Goomastah's leave was privilege leave, during which he was entitled to his full pay.
