Miscellaneous.

SANCTIONED.

2. The second case in the tabular statement is stated to be No. 49, in the list submitted to the Board under their Miscellaneous Circular No. CLXV. This number relates to "Theka Kovilagom," whereas the lapse now reported is "Padinhare Kovilagom," Nos. 50 and 51 in the said statement. The pension of Rupees 1,750 was enjoyed in equal shares by "Gopaliya Rani and "Shankara Verma Rajah," and when the former died the entire allowance was paid to Shankara Verma Rajah, (the incumbent whose death is now reported) under the order of Government, dated 20th July 1866, No. 1,850. The Board will point out to the Collector the necessity of giving correct information in these statements of lapses, for otherwise serious mistakes are likely to occur.
