Collectors are requested to submit, in the accompanying form, their future Statements in respect to the grant of fresh lands, or compensation in lieu of Inams rendered unprofitable from causes beyond the Inamdar's control, or by some act of Government. In future Statements, the two classes should be shewn separately, that is, all cases in which land has become unprofitable from any act of Government, should be first entered, and then those in which natural causes have operated to destroy its value. In the Remark column of the Statement, the circumstances which rendered the land unprofitable should be clearly explained.
