appointments had to be made. The Accountant-General has retrenched their salaries, and has directed the amounts to be recovered from their next pay bill. I have therefore the honour to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained as early as possible to authorize him to pass the charges now retrenched and such additional charges that will be incurred on account of their salaries till passed men can be procured.

2. I trust that early orders may be passed on the subject, as under paragraph 2 of the order of the Government of India, embodied in the Accountant-General's Circular Order, dated 28th September 1869, No. 4,092, I am precluded from disbursing any pay until the Accountant-General's objection is set aside.

3. I will advertize for passed candidates for the different Post Offices, but I do not anticipate that I shall get competent applicants.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government, to whom the difficulty of obtaining passed men for situations in the Wynaad is well known.

No. 237. ORDER THEREON, 16th December 1869, No. 3,195.

THE arrangements reported in these Proceedings are sanctioned retrospectively from the dates on which they were made, and subject to report after twelve months as to whether passed candidates have been employed in lieu of the present incumbents.
