No. 550. Read the following letter from the Officiating Inam Commissioner, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 4th March 1869, No. 10 :—

1. I have the honor to submit, for the favorable consideration of Government, the claims of my Officiating Special Assistant, P. Chentsal Row, for confirmation in his appointment.

2. P. Chentsal Row has acted as Special Assistant from 1863, and when I recommended his confirmation in 1864, the Government were pleased* to allow him to draw the full salary of the post, but declined to confirm him in it, as it was then considered that the Commission would be closed shortly. This expectation, however, has not been fulfilled, the Commission has continued, and Chentsal Row's services in the Inam Department will be required for three or four years longer, whether the Commission is retained as a separate Department or is amalgamated with the Board of Revenue.

* G. O., 27th January 1865, No. 143.

3. Chentsal Row is a public servant of eighteen years standing, and bears the highest testimonials from all the gentlemen under whom he has served. He has proved himself fully equal to the high position he now occupies, which is one of great responsibility, and requiring a high degree of ability, judgment and official experience; and I think it is only fair that he should be confirmed in the post in which he has officiated for the last six years. In fact he has acted as Special Assistant for a longer period than his predecessor Rangacharlu.

4. As Officiating Special Assistant, Chentsal Row is neither entitled to privilege leave on full pay nor does the higher pay drawn by him count for pension; his present substantive appointment is that of a Third Class Deputy Collector, and it is certainly hard that he should have to look forward to falling back upon a Third Class Deputy Collectorship after filling an appointment equal in emolument to a First Class Deputy Collectorship for 9 or ten years, and rendering valuable service in the Inam Commission.

5. I also take this opportunity of recommending that my Second Assistant, T. Krishna Row, may be confirmed as a Third Class Deputy Collector and Assistant to the Inam Commissioner. He has officiated in the post with great efficiency since 1865. He is an officer of 25 years standing, and bears a high character, and his services in the Inam Commission will probably be required for two years longer.

No. 551. ORDER THEREON, 20th March 1869, No. 782.

Miscellaneous.

Resolved accordingly that P. Chentsal Row, Officiating Special Assistant, and T. Krishna Row, Officiating Third Class Deputy Collector and Assistant to the Inam Commissioner, be confirmed in their respective appointments.
