Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 31st March 1869.

No. 676. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th February 1869, No. 1,059 :—

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Gudiatum, 27th January 1869, No. 23.

I have the honor to report the death, on the 28th July 1868, of Ramadasappa Naidu, pensioned Polligar of Kolamasanapalli, in Palmanair Talook.

2. If the Board will be pleased to refer to their Proceedings, dated 15th August 1862, they will find that Ramadasappa Naidu was the eldest son, by his first wife, of Chellappa Naidu, who was in receipt of an annual allowance of Rupees 900, granted by Government, in Extract from Minutes of Consultation, dated 24th April 1854, No. 477, communicated with the Board's Proceedings of 8th May 1854, and that, under the terms of the grant, the pension is payable to lineal male heirs, only on condition of residence within the Polliem. The deceased Ramadasappa Naidu, who then inherited the pension on his father's demise, had died without issue, leaving a widow of four years of age named Muni Venkatamma and two younger brothers.

Vide Government Proceedings, dated 14th August 1862, No. 1,714. Board's Proceedings, dated 15th August 1862.

3. The surviving lineal male heirs of Chellappa Naidu, the original grantee, are Munisami Naidu alias Muni Chellappa Naidu, the second son by his first wife, and Ramappa Naidu, the son by his second wife Muniamma, who is also living with the family.

4. I now beg to recommend that the pension in question be registered in the name of Munisami Naidu, the eldest surviving son of Chellappa Naidu and full brother of deceased Ramadasappa Naidu, and request the Board's authority to pay the arrears of pension, namely, Rupees 382-4-2, which have accrued from the date of Ramadasappa Naidu's death up to the end of December 1868.

5. Munisami Naidu will, on receipt of the Board's Orders, be instructed to provide for his half-brother Ramappa Naidu and the widow of his deceased brother from the allowance now continued to him in a manner suitable to their habits and position.

The Tahsildar explains that the delay in reporting this lapse has been occasioned by Munisami Naidu's illness and consequent inability to attend the inquiry which had to be held for the purpose of determining which member of the family should inherit the pension.

The explanation is not satisfactory, and the Tahsildar has been censured for his remissness in the matter.

The Board sanction the registry of the allowance in the name of Muni Chellappa Naidu, and payment of the arrears which have accrued since the death of Ramadasappa Naidu.

2. These Proceedings will be submitted for the confirmation of Government.
