Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 19th May 1869.

No. 439. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Simla, 30th April 1869, No. 207:—

READ—

Report of progress in the realisation of Certificate-tax under Act IX. of 1868, under the Government of Bengal to the end of January 1869, showing assessments of 15½ lacs and realised collections of 11 lacs.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council considers the proceeds of the Certificate-tax, under Act IX. of 1868, in Bengal satisfactory. His Excellency in Council is of opinion that it would be interesting and useful to have a return showing the proceeds of the Income-tax of 1861—65, the License-tax of 1867, and the Certificate-tax of 1868 in each district. The districts of each Administration should be placed in order of their productiveness under the Income-tax; and if any district occupying a high position in the list prove to have been relatively very unproductive under the taxes of 1867 and 1868, the reasons should be briefly ascertained, and any errors of procedure discovered, corrected.

ORDERED that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded for the guidance of the several local Governments and Administrations.
