No. 362. From the Quarter Master General, to the Officiating Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Head Quarters, Coonoor, 30th April 1869, No. $\frac{5}{3277}$.

In reply to your reference docket, dated the 16th February last, I have the honor, by order, to state that the Officer Commanding the 1st Royals at Cannanore reports that the two letters,* addressed to him by the Collector of Coimbatore, never reached him; and he encloses copy of a letter† from Mr. Wedderburn, the Acting Collector, stating that the letters in question were "addressed to Wellington."

* Dated 6th November 1867, 30th March 1868.

† Dated 23rd March 1869, No. 54.

2. The Officer Commanding Wellington reports that Lieutenant Colonel Lacy (the late Commandant) has no recollection whatever of the letters ever having come to him, and there is no trace in the Staff Office at Wellington of their ever having been received.

No. 363. ORDER THEREON, 14th May 1869, No. 1818.

Ordered that the foregoing letter from the Quarter Master General, be communicated to the Revenue Department, with the remark that the non-adjustment of the claim of the Collector of Coimbatore, by the Officer Commanding 1st Royals, appears to be clearly attributable to the mis-direction of the former Officer's letters.
