Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th July 1870.

Read the following papers:—

No. 19. From the Collector of the Godavery District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Cocanada, 21st June 1870, No. 7.

I HAVE the honour to report that Mr. J. G. Horsfall, who left Cocanada on three months' privilege leave, granted him in the Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 1st March 1870, returned to the district on the 20th instant in the steamer Asia, and assumed charge of the Sub-Collector's office on the afternoon of the same day. His leave commenced on the 13th March. The steamer left Calcutta on the 14th instant, but met with bad weather on the way between Gopalpoor and Cocanada, or she would have been here on the evening of Sunday the 19th instant, and enabled him to assume charge on the forenoon of the 20th (Monday).

2. He has not overstayed his leave more than one week, since he assumed charge on the 20th instant; the last day of the week having happened to be Sunday, counting from Monday the 13th instant, on which date his leave expired. The steamer in which he arrived anchored in the roads about 11 A.M., but on account of the unfavourable wind, the boat could not reach the shore until about 1 o'clock.

3. I beg that, if the Government deem it necessary, orders may be sent to the Accountant-General to prevent objections being raised by him in passing pay and allowances from the day on which Mr. Horsfall resumed charge of office.

REFERRED to the Accountant-General for report:

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
30th June 1870.

(Signed) H. WELLESLEY,
Acting Under-Secretary to Government.

No. 20. Memorandum from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 4th July 1870, No. 99.

THE undersigned has the honour to report that the three months' privilege leave granted to Mr. Horsfall commenced on the 13th March last, and expired on the 12th ultimo. He should, therefore, have returned to his duty on the morning of the 13th idem. As he did not do so until the afternoon of the 20th idem, he overstayed his privilege leave by eight clear days, and thereby has, under Section 21 of the Covenanted Absentee Rules of 1868, forfeited his appointment, and will not be entitled, under the rules, to any allowance whatever till he be re-appointed by Government.

(Signed) R. W. LODWICK,
For Accountant-General.
