Letter from the Deputy-Accountant-General, Central Provinces, No. 2,696, dated 13th November 1869.

Reply thereto, No. 3,439 of 31st December 1869.

Letter to Commissioner of Inland Customs, No. 3,440, dated 31st December 1869.

Letter to Accountants-General, Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, No. 313, dated 13th January 1870, stating that no transfer credit is to be made in the public accounts for duty on Salt exported from Madras or Bombay across the Inland Customs Line.

Letter from the Commissioner of Inland Customs, No. 25, dated 17th January 1870, submitting in reply to letter, No. 3,440, dated 31st December 1869, a copy of the Proceedings of the Government of Madras, assenting to Mr. Hume's proposals for the better security of the revenue on Salt crossing the Madras frontier into the Central Provinces, and agreeing to afford credit for the duty levied in the Madras Presidency on Salt which is passed into the Central Provinces.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council having finally considered the subject is pleased to re-affirm the Order of 13th January 1870, prohibiting any transfer credit in the public accounts for the Madras or Bombay duty on Salt imported across the Inland Customs Line into the Central Provinces. The Commissioner of Inland Customs will furnish the Governments of Madras and Bombay with quarterly statements showing the amount of Salt which has crossed the Inland Customs Line on passes from those Presidencies, and in his annual report he will state the amount of Salt which has so crossed during the year, and the amount of duty thus lost to his department.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Governments of Madras, Bombay, and Bengal; the Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces; the Accountants-General of the Presidencies and Provinces concerned, and the Comptroller-General of Accounts; and to the Commissioner of Inland Customs.
