Proceedings of Government, 11th January 1870, Nos. 145, 146.

SIR,—I am directed to forward, for submission to the Government of India, the accompanying Proceedings of the Board of Revenue in which that authority raise the question whether, under the existing law, certain foreign goods are liable to Duty when exported.

2. In the Board's Proceedings are embodied two papers on the subject, viz., a letter from the Madras Acting Collector of Sea Customs, dated 7th September 1869, and a telegram from the Bombay Commissioner of Customs, dated 14th idem.

3. It will be observed that this Government are of opinion that it is the desire of the Government of India that no Europe Twist or Europe Piece-goods should be held liable to Export-duty; and, under these circumstances, I am directed to refer the question for the orders of His Excellency the Viceroy in Council. Meanwhile, the Government have directed that the existing practice of exempting such goods from Export-duty should be maintained.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) R. A. DALYELL, Acting Secretary to Government.

Exd. F. R. Bantleman.

3. It seems from the letter that the export of the goods in question from Bombay is duty
free, and we propose a different view of the letter from the Govt of India to the address of the Bombay Govt
dated 30 January 1869
No 766 from that adopted by the Madras Adm
Col of Sea Customs
in para 8 of his letter of 7 Sept. His Excellency in Council

gather from the letter from the Govt of India
just referred to that it is the opinion of that Govt that no European Turkish or European Piece-goods
should be held liable to Export duty.

4. Under these circumstances, the Govt direct me to refer the question for the advice of the Govt of India.
Meanwhile, they have directed that the existing practice of exempting such
goods from export
duty should be main-tained.
