No. 176. Read the following Endorsement of the Accountant-General, dated Fort Saint George, 14th June 1870, No. 78 :—

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 4th June 1870, No. 3,841.

Read the following letter from the Officiating Collector of Nellore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 16th May 1870, No. 1,077.

The Salt Superintendent of Padarti having been suspended for three months, the Second English Accountant of this office, Madvapati Sashagherry Row, was appointed to act in his place. Under the Deputation Allowance Rules he is entitled to draw his substantive pay (Rupees 45) plus twenty per cent., or Rupees 20, total 65 Rupees, but the whole pay is available.

2. I request therefore that the Board will be good enough to move the Government to sanction the full pay available being paid to the acting incumbent, Sashagherry Row, with effect from his nomination to act.

3. It will be observed that the power allowed to local officers to disburse full pay is limited to salaries less than 100 Rupees per mensem. The pay of the Padarti Superintendent's post is exactly 100 Rupees per month.

Order of India Government, No. 3,443, dated 30th December 1869.

Submitted for the favourable consideration of Government, through the Accountant-General.

2. The Collector recommends that Rupees 100 a-month, the full pay of the suspended Salt Superintendent of Padarti, should be given to his substitute, a Clerk in the Collector's office.

Submitted for the orders of Government, with the remark that, under the rules, the Salt Superintendent referred to is entitled, during the period of suspension, to one-fourth of his salary, and that therefore the sum available from his salary is only 75 Rupees, which may be allowed to his substitute, M. Sashagherry Row, under the Orders of the Government of India, 12th July 1869, No. 1,821, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of 4th August 1869, page 151.

(Signed) F. LUSHINGTON,
Accountant-General.

No. 177. Order thereon, 18th July 1870, No. 1,098.

Miscellaneous.

The Government see no special grounds for allowing full pay to the acting incumbent.
