Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th August 1870.

No. 49. Read the following Endorsement of the Accountant-General, Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 26th July 1870, No. 125:—

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th July 1870, No. 4,859.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Chingleput, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 5th July 1870, No. 263.

In their Order of the 5th January last, No. 9, the Government approved of the nomination of P. Bungariah Naidoo, the Head Accountant in this office, as Acting Tahsildar for the Town of Madras, which post he held up to 21st ultimo, drawing a deputation allowance of twenty per cent. on the salary of the office, in addition to his substantive pay of 85 Rupees a-month as Head Accountant.

2. The Board having in their Proceedings of the 1st April 1870, No. 2,180, dismissed Sambasiva Moodelliar from his post of Tahsildar, Bungariah Naidoo now claims the full salary as Tahsildar from the date of the aforesaid Proceedings up to the date on which he was relieved. As his claim is reasonable I beg to request that the Accountant-General may be authorized to pass his pay during that period as Tahsildar of Madras.

3. In making this recommendation I beg to state that Srinivasa Moodelly, whom I sent for from the North Arcot District to act for Bungariah Naidoo, with whom I subsequently confirmed him in the appointment, joined his duties on the 13th May last, and continued in the appointment until relieved by Bungariah Naidoo on the 22nd ultimo.

4. The Collector of North Arcot, under whom Srinivasa Moodelly was Third English Accountant, on a salary of Rupees 35 per month, having refused to grant him leave except on forfeiture of full pay, Srinivasa Moodelly ceased to draw the pay of his substantive appointment from the 11th of May.

5. Srinivasa Moodelly, who has passed the tests prescribed for the Head Accountant, performed the duties of his new office with credit, and afforded me satisfaction. I beg therefore to recommend that the full pay of the Head Accountant, which, as shown above, became available, be allowed to Srinivasa Moodelly, together with his pay as Third English Accountant in the North Arcot District, for the 11th and 12th May, during which time he was enroute to join his appointment here, which he did on the 13th idem.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government through the Accountant-General.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government with the remark that, under the recent despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 103, dated 24th March last, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of 7th June 1870, at page 700, P. Bungariah Naidoo is not entitled to the full pay of the Tahsildarship of Madras. Srinivasa Moodelly, Third English Accountant in the Collectorate of North Arcot, who acted for Bungariah Naidoo, having forfeited his substantive salary, viz., Rupees 35, may, under the Rules, be allowed to draw deputation allowance at fifty per cent.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, upon the salary of the appointment in which he acted, or should Government so wish it, such an additional sum from the available salary of the Tahsildar of Madras as shall bring his allowances within the pay of that appointment, viz., Rupees 85.

(Signed) F. LUSHINGTON,
Accountant-General.

No. 50.

ORDER THEREON, 4th August 1870, No. 1,159.

Miscellaneous.

The Government observe that, under the orders conveyed in the despatch from the Secretary of State for India, quoted by the Accountant-General, P. Bungariah Naidoo is not entitled to the full pay of the office of Tahsildar of Madras.

2. With regard to Srinivasa Moodelly, who acted as Head Accountant in the Chingleput Collectorate, the Government direct that, in addition to the authorized deputation allowance at fifty per cent. upon the salary of that appointment, he be permitted to draw, for the period during which he acted in it, such a sum from the available salary of the Tahsildar of Madras as shall bring his allowances to the amount of pay attached to the office of Head Accountant, viz., Rupees 85.
