Some of the officers who are not provided with public buildings for the use of their offices at their head-quarters are permitted to draw these allowances all the year round without reference to the movements made by them as an equivalent for providing accommodation for their office-servants, either in their own tents or by renting buildings at their own cost.

5. Junior Civil Servants on first appointment are allowed an advance of Rupees 500 for the purchase of tents, and a further advance of Rupees 1,000 to provide themselves with furniture, camp equipage, and such other equipment, as is necessary to admit of their discharging efficiently the duties of the offices for which they may be selected. This advance is recovered by a deduction of 100 Rupees from their monthly salary, commencing with that of the fourth month after their arrival in India.
