3. The out-door work in the districts of Madras and North Arcot, where the arrear was large, has been completed. The Tahsildars, to whom the settlement was entrusted, have performed the work with a degree of earnestness and rapidity which is both surprising and highly creditable to them. I would specially notice the Tahsildars of Sydapet and Ponnery. These talooks had not been taken up by the Deputy-Collector, and the entire settlement has been made by the talook officers. The work in the district of Madras was only commenced on the 6th November, while that in the district of North Arcot was not taken up till after the 15th of that month. The number of cases recorded and decided by each of the Tahsildars is shown in the margin, and I am happy to add that few, if any, appeals against the decisions of the officers have been preferred.

4. The Collectors and divisional officers have facilitated and pressed on the work earnestly, and the exertions and local advice of the Inspecting Deputy-Collector T. Krishna Row, who has visited each of the Cusbahs, have greatly advanced the rapid disposal of this important work.
