With reference to paragraph 3 of my letter, No. 72, of 20th ultimo, on the subject of the Clerks of the Vernacular Department of my office, I have the honour to report that, pursuant to the Notification calling for applicants, upwards of sixty applications were received. The majority of these was from school-boys and men who had never been in the public service. The others were from inferior men, generally on the receipt of salaries averaging Rupees 15 per mensem in the plains. From these I selected three, who are passed candidates, holding fair testimonials.
