Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 20th September 1870.

Read the following papers :—

No. 215. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st September 1870, No. 5,544.

Read the following letter from the Officiating Collector of the Kistna District, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 16th August 1870, No. 3,765.

With reference to Board's Proceedings, dated 8th April 1870, No. 2,372, I have the honour to state that the Deputy-Accountant-General has retrenched the salary of my Treasury Deputy for 17th March 1870, as having been absent without leave. He gave over charge, under the impression that he would not meet with any disappointment, and not having been able to catch the steamer, resumed office on the following day, as there is only one steamer in the month. The Deputy-Accountant-General is of opinion that the retrenchment cannot be withdrawn unless the Treasury Deputy obtains privilege leave for that day. As by doing so he would be losing an instalment of his privilege leave for a nominal absence from duty, he requests that, if possible, the Accountant-General may be moved to withdraw the retrenchment without prejudice to his privilege leave. It would be very hard if gazetted officers are not allowed to absent themselves for such short periods as a single day on account of indisposition or other indispensable cause. An officer who has, by service, earned his three months' cumulative privilege leave may be deprived of the whole of it, should he be incapable of attending office for any two days in the year.

Submitted for the orders of Government through the Accountant-General.

No. 168.

Report of the Accountant-General.

The undersigned has the honour to observe that as Deputy-Collector K. Rama Row cancelled the whole of the privilege leave granted to him by the Board of Revenue, immediately he saw that he had missed the steamer, and was thereby not able to take advantage of it, this Office had no option but to consider him as having been, upon 17th of March last, absent without leave, which necessitated the retrenchment of his salary for that day, as neither in the leave rules, nor in any order of Government is there provision to meet the special circumstances of the case.

2. The loss of salary, however, is not the only penalty which attaches itself to Rama Row's action, because absence without leave also entails forfeiture of past service towards privilege leave; so that at the present moment Rama Row has no privilege leave at his credit.

3. There is at the discretion of Government the alternative of allowing him to reckon the 17th of March as one day of the fortnight's privilege leave granted to him, and of permitting him to cancel the remainder only. By this means he will secure his pay for the day in question, and retain his right to avail himself

(after the expiry of six months from that date) of the balance of such privilege leave as may then be due to him.
