Wondut-Nissa Begum, 1st daughter of the original grantee. Died on 14th August 1870.	The whole amount was enjoyed by the deceased.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sadulla Khan, aged 58 years, eldest son. 2. Nur-ud-deen Ali Khan, aged 46 years, second son. 3. Raseed-ud-deen Ali Khan, aged 40 years, fourth son. 4. Sahab Begum Sahiba, daughter. 5. Maha Begum Sahiba, daughter. 6. Karen-un-Nissa Begum Sahiba, daughter. 7. Nazam-ut-Dowlah, aged 5 years, grandson. NOTE.—Third son died.	Nos. 1 to 6 entered in column 9 are in the receipt of separate allowances granted by Government. No. 7 appears to have been under the support of Wondut-Nissa Begum, his grandmother up to the date of her death.	The deceased Wondut-Nissa Begum was the first daughter of the late Nizam-ut-Dowlah, whose monthly allowance of Rupees 419-6-0 was, after his death, distributed among the several members of his family, agreeably to the Orders of Government, dated 27th October 1845, No. 1,252, communicated with the Board's Proceedings, dated 31st October 1845; she was one of the nineteen members of Nizam-ut-Dowlah's family, enumerated in the list submitted to Board, with Collector Mr. Porter's letter, dated 25th September 1845, No. 104. 2. On 25th July 1870, the deceased Wondut-Nissa Begum presented a petition to me, through her Vakeel, setting forth that about five years ago, her fourth son's wife, Sakeena Begum Sahiba, after being delivered of the son, No. 7 in column 9, died immediately; that she afterwards carried the child to her house and brought him up; that as she became old, she desired that the pension that descended to her from her father may, after her death, be renewed in the name of her grandson for his support; and that until the boy attains his majority, the monthly allowance may be paid to her fourth son, Raseed-ud-deen Ali Khan, who is willing to support the boy (his own son). Her sons and daughters to whom their father's allowance was continued agreed to this arrangement.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
14th November 1870.

3. I referred this petition to the head of the Masulipatam Nabob's family report, who certified to the truth of the deceased's statement, and recommended that her allowance might be renewed in the name of her grandson, and intimated that she also had left a Will to that effect.

4. Woondut-Nissa Begum died on 14th August 1870, and her fourth son, Raseed-ud-deen Khan, presented a petition to me subsequently, reporting the death of his mother, and requesting that her allowance might be renewed in the name of her grandson (his son) Nizam-ut-Dowlah, and that until the boy comes of age, he would support him.

5. Another person named Kurubanally Saheb, who is the grandson of the deceased Jalal-ut-Dowlah, whose irregular habits removed him from the office of the head of the family of his father Nizam-ut-Dowlah, and rendered it necessary to divide the allowance among the several members of the family, under the Orders of Government quoted above, presented a petition to me, stating that the deceased was his paternal aunt, and that her pension might be renewed in his name.

6. The original petitions from both parties are herewith forwarded for the information of the Board.

7. It appears clear that the deceased Woondut-Nissa Begum brought up her grandson from the time of his mother's death, and supported him; and that she nominated him as her next heir to succeed to her allowance. The deceased Woondut-Nissa Begum had an allowance of Rupees 18-8-0 a-month. Her three surviving sons and three daughters draw allowances jointly of Rupees 280 a-month, her fourth son's allowance being Rupees 50 a-month. It is for the Board to determine whether there are any grounds on which to recommend that the deceased's allowance of Rupees 18-8-0 should be continued, as she wished, to the son of her fourth surviving son, or go to the family recognized head of the family, whose claims I cannot see, or finally be resumed by Government.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Petition.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board see no reason to recommend the continuance of the allowance.

No. 224.

ORDER THEREON, 14th November 1870, No. 1,787.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government are unable to sanction continuance of the pension referred to. All the members of the family left by the deceased pensioner are provided for; the father of the grandson, who is recommended as her successor, being himself in receipt of an allowance.

2. The pension (Rupees 18-8-0 per mensem) will therefore lapse to Government.
