Granted by the Government to Rama Naidoo, the original grantee, on the resumption of the privileges, etc., enjoyed by him, and renewed in the name of his eldest son, Condama Naidoo, under sanction of Government, under date the 14th July 1835. No Sanads, etc., are forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, or privileges, etc.	Condama Naidoo, the last holder of the allowance, died on the 27th September 18[illegible]. He was the eldest son of the grantee.	The allowance was enjoyed by the deceased, subject to payment of Rupees 41-6-8, per annum, to the family of his deceased cousin Vencatasamy.	1 Siddamma, widow of the deceased, aged 50 years. 1 Rama Naidoo, son of the deceased, aged 30 years. 1 Timma Naidoo, elder son of Vencatasawmy Naidoo, the younger brother of the deceased, aged 40 years. 1 Rama Naidoo, 2nd son of do. do., aged 32 years. 1 Chinnama Naidoo, 3rd son of do. do., aged 20 years 5 The family are reported to live jointly, and they also possess certain Puttah lands assessed at Rupees 93-4-3, and Pasbundum lands assessed at Rupees 23-2-9, and they are believed to be tolerably well off with the half pension.	This is an annual Poligar allowance granted by the Government to the original grantee Rama Naidoo on the resumption, on the 12th July 1801, of the privileges, etc., enjoyed by him. It was, on his death, renewed in the name of his eldest son, the last incumbent, Condama Naidoo, under the sanction of Government, dated 14th July 1835, on the same conditions as was recommended by the Board, viz., subject to payment of an annual allowance of Rupees 41-6-8 to his cousin Vencatasawmy, who has since demised, leaving his second widow named Kaderemma, aged 40 years, and a daughter named Siddamma 4 years old; also 5 daughters (all married) by his elder deceased wife. Under the authority conveyed in No. 178 of the Board's Standing Orders in Dalyell's Edition, the allowance has been registered, subject to the confirmation of Government, in the name of the claimant Rama Naidoo, son of the deceased Condama Naidoo, from 28th September 1869, subject, as before, to payment of the sum of Rupees 41-6-8 per annum, to the family of the deceased cousin Vencatasawmy, together with arrears, amounting to Rupees 261-0-8, due to the deceased from April 1868 to 27th September 1869, being one year five months and twenty-seven days. The prolonged delay in submitting this report to this Office was, as reported by the Acting Sub-Collector, occasioned by the non-appearance of the different members of the deceased's family before the Tahsildar till June last, to give the requisite information on several points, though they were repeatedly called on. The Acting Sub-Collector has been requested to see that such unnecessary delay does not occur in future. I may add that all the information obtainable from my records has been given.
