Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
17*th November* 1870.

No. 239. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th October 1870, No. 6,054 :—

Read the following letter from the Officiating Collector of Nellore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 8th September 1870, No. 2,342.

In his letter, dated the 1st instant, the son of the late Udayagiri Jaghiredar Syed Mahomed Ghouse, reports that his wife died on the 29th ultimo, and requests me to obtain the sanction of Government for a money-grant to enable him to meet the expenses of her funeral rites.

2. In 1865, when his mother, Fatima Sahiba, died, Mr. Dykes recommended the payment of Rupees 500 ; but the Government, in their Order, dated 2nd February 1866, No. 279, sanctioned only Rupees 240, observing that the grant of a year's instalment of the pension, enjoyed by the deceased, was an adequate allowance for the expenses of her funeral.

3. In 1867, when another widow of the late Jaghiredar died, a grant of Rupees 240 was also sanctioned, (vide Government Order, dated 13th February 1868, No. 409).

4. It does not appear that the deceased in this present instance had any pension. Looking, however, to the present indigent circumstances of the family, I have the honour to submit the application of Ghouse Sahib for the favourable consideration of the Board and Government. I think a grant of Rupees 150 or Rupees 200 will be sufficient.

Enclosure No. 1.—Letter from Syed Mahomed Ghouse.

Submitted for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. The case differs from those quoted by the Collector, in which Government were pleased to allot a sum of 240 Rupees to defray the funeral expenses of members of the family ; in that petitioner's wife was not herself in the receipt of any pension, and the only ground on which the request can be made is the indigent condition of the family.

3. The Board are of opinion that 150 Rupees (which is equivalent to the amount of his pension for one month) should suffice.

No. 240. Order thereon, 17th November 1870, No. 1,795.

Miscellaneous.

Resolved accordingly that Syed Mahomed Ghouse be granted Rupees 150 to meet the funeral expenses of his late wife.
