No. 163. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th January 1870, No. 51 :—

Read the following letter from the Acting Sub-Collector, to the Collector of Cuddapah, dated Maddenpully, 30th November 1869, No. 435.

In reply to your foot-note, No. 1,648, dated November 10, 1869, on Board's Proceedings, No. 8,065, of October 29, 1869, I have the honour to state that I find on inquiry that the allowance to Yerikalapah, Nagammah, Mutti Kondama Naidoo, Naga Mulliah, and Erra Mulliah, was merely a private arrangement on the part of the Tavajeedar, and that the amounts entered opposite their names are not paid from the treasury, but by the holder of the pension at his will.

2. The widows, in whose names the continuance of the pension has been sanctioned, have agreed to continue these payments, but this is merely a private arrangement, and the whole of the allowance, Rupees 9-13-11, should be continued in their names only.

3. With regard to the monthly payment of Rupees 5 to Pedda Malapah Naidoo, the widows agree to the payment of this sum as heretofore. Sanction will be necessary for the payment of the whole sum of Rupees 178-7-8 yearly according to the shares mentioned below :—

Yerikalammah, first widow of deceased	59	3	10
Nagammah, second widow of deceased	59	3	10

2. The Board learn from the Acting Sub-Collector's report that the distribution of portions of Thatama Naidoo's allowance to Yerikalapah, Nagammah, Mutti Kondama Naidoo, Naga Mulliah, and Erra Mulliah, was by private arrangement, and that the widows consent to continue them in the same manner. They also consent to the continuance of Rupees 60 per annum to Pedda Malapah Naidoo.

No. 164. Order thereon, 17th February 1870, No. 231.

Miscellaneous.

The continuance of the pension, of which a share was enjoyed by the late Thatama Naidoo, was sanctioned in G.O., dated 23rd November 1869, No. 3,026. Thatama Naidoo's widows, who inherit in equal shares the portion enjoyed by him, having signified their consent to the payment of the quotas hitherto allotted to the family dependents, there is no occasion for disturbing the arrangements which were in force before his decease.
